Name _____ Date _____

NCTE/IRA Standards Addressed: 5 Students employ a wide range of strategies as they write and use different writing process elements appropriately to communicate with different audiences for a variety of purposes.

Directions: Did you notice the text of Lauren's Awesome Adventures was structured similar to an acrostic poem? The first letter on each page on the left spells LAUREN. Acrostic poems are unique poems that do not have to rhyme. It has the topic written vertically, and, at each letter, something to do with the topic is written horizontally. Create an acrostic poem using your name. First, write the letters that spell your name down the side of your page. Next, go back to each letter and think of a word, phrase or sentence that starts with that letter and describes you.
